

'Giving up doesn't always mean you are weak. Sometimes it means that you are strong enough to let go.' Author Unknown

I came upon this today and you guessed it, it got me thinking.....

'Don't quit'.....
'Never, ever, ever give up'.....
'Failure is not an option'.....

Do any of these sound familiar?

Don't get me wrong, a never-say-die attitude will get you places you never dreamed of – just 'Google' the stories of Colonel Sanders, Walt Disney, Ray Kroc (McDonalds), Michael Jordan, Gene Kelly, Billy Joel and even The King, Elvis Presley..... This very attitude is why they are all household names and will be for generations.

But throughout even these illustrious lifetimes, not every idea or business deal, game plan or song was a winner.

So Jen what are you saying.....????

What I am saying is have the courage to go for a goal or something you believe in but be prepared to take the 'blinkers off' occasionally if you start to spin your wheels.

Sometimes, there is more than one 'route' to a destination.

An amazing person once said to me that as one door closes, another one opens BUT it can be HELL in the hallways.

Not until you completely close a door and remove your hand from the door knob are you free to reach out and open the next door.

Are you going through 'HELL' in a hallway.....?

Are you ready to let go of what's holding you back.....
